Chancery Cause: D. H. Parkey vs. G. D. Lawson &

Pennington

CA - Debt
T - Property

To the Hon. H. A. W. Skeen, Judge of the Circuit Court for Lee County, Virginia:

Humbly complaining your orator D. H. Parkey, a citizen of Lee County, Virginia, would respectfully represent and show unto your honor that heretofore G. D. Lawson was a resident of Lee County, Virginia, and while a resident thereof became indebted to your orator in the sum of $102.71 for goods, wares, and merchandise furnished by your orator to the said G. D. Lawson at his special instance and request, and which sum of money has been due and payable since October 1st, 1908, and which said sum of money is now due, owing and unpaid; as shown by affidavit marked "A" as a part of this bill

Your orator will further represent and show unto your honor that the said G.D.Lawson has estate and property within the County of Lee, that he has a lot of corn situated on the lands of J.W. and Manda Lawson, being six acres of corn not yet gathered, and that the said Lawson has in the hands of A. L. & J. W. Lawson thirty-five bushels of wheat.

Your orator would further represent and show unto your honor that the said G. D. Lawson has left this state and changed his domicile and has now become a non-resident of the State of Virginia.

Your orator would further represent and show unto your honor that the said G. D. Lawson before leaving the state of Virginia, gave to your orator a lien upon the said thirty-five bushels of wheat in the hands of J.W.Lawson, and on the six acres of corn for the purpose of securing your orators said debt as aforesaid.

The object therefore of this bill is to enforce the said lien against the said corn and wheat in the hands of the said J.W. & Manda Lawson, and if mistaken in his right to enforce the said lien given him by the said G.D. Lawson, to have the said corn and te said wheat attached in the hands of the said A.L. & J.W. Lawson.

The prayer therefore of your orator is that the said G. D. Lawson, A.L. & J.W.Lawson be made parties defendant to this bill of complaint and be required to answer the same, but not under oath, answer under oath being expressly waived, that an order of publication be made, posted and published against the said G. D. Lawson, that the said corn and wheat and property, be attached in the hands of the said Manda and J. W. Lawson, to secure the payment of the said sum of money, and sold to satisfy your orators said debt and the costs of this suit.

And may all other, further and general relief be granted your orator that the nature of his cause and good conscience requires. And he will ever pray &c.
